next year. Also an assistant director was appointed. Future responsibilities of the committee will include reviewing the joint sections of the ASASU constitution.

b. Government Operations: Mr. Polansky and Mr. Rutkowski said the AB #24 has been revised from the version that was presented last month. Further discussion will take place during the New Business section of the meeting.

VI. External Reports:

- a. Academic Senate: No report
- b. Graduate College: No report
- c. Undergraduate Student Government: No report
- d. Arizona Students Association: No report

V. Old Business:

a. AB#20: Formation of Special Initiatives Committee- After a discussion on whether it is necessary to establish a committee for special initiatives, the consensus is to not form the committee due to possible accountability issues if current committees and GPSA members would expect the committee to be totally accountable for the various functions of GPSA throughout the year. The example of Graduate Appreciation Week was mentioned. Voted not to adopt the bill.

VI. New Business:

- a. Confirmation of Kim Hallmark-McKellar to the Assembly Seat for the Walter Cronkite School of Journalism – 1st R. Polansky and 2nd E. Ackman- Confirmation passed.
- b. AB #21: Assembly Approval of the 2010-2011 GPSA Policy Directive: 1st R. Polansky and 2nd M. Savage- Policy Directive appeared too vague and R. Polansky motioned to amend bill #21 to strike from the bylaws section A sub section F. This was 2nd J. Firestone and to have the bill move to government operations committee. Vote on amendment passed.
- c. AB #22: Establishment of an International Students' Committee- 1st Y. Tsai and 2nd R. Polansky- to establish an international voice for graduate students . This committee is for a temporary trial basis for just the remainder of this academic year. General assembly agreeing on trial basis to gather research on the committee's success. Would be able to determine at that time if the international committee should continue. Bill passed.
- d. AB #23: Censure of the Vice President of External Affairs- 1st R. Polansky and 2nd H. Reitzel-Rivera – Bill passed.
- e. AB #24: A Bill to Revise the Duties Pertaining to Internal Affairs and Professional Development- 1st R. Polansky and 2nd M. Rutkowski- This is basically a technical bill to change the wording to reflect the current duties in the Internal Affairs and Professional Development departments of GPSA- Bill passed.
