GRADUATE AND PROFESSIONAL STUDENTS ASSOCIATION
GRADUATE ASSEMBLY
ELEVENTH LEGISLATIVE SESSION

AUGUST 23RD, 2013

ASSEMBLY BILL #08

INTRODUCED BY:

JAMES ALLING
ASSEMBLY MEMBER – IRA A. FULTON SCHOOLS OF ENGINEERING
PRESIDENT OF THE ASSEMBLY

A Resolution Committing to Participating in a Joint Legislative Session

---

GRADUATE AND PROFESSIONAL STUDENTS ASSOCIATION,

WHEREAS the Graduate and Professional Students Association is a member government of the Associated Students of Arizona State University;

WHEREAS it is in the interest of all graduate and professional students to work with our peers in the Associated Students of Arizona State University;

WHEREAS there are many issues that affect all students at Arizona State University as an integral whole;

THEREFOR BE IT RESOLVED the Graduate Assembly, and its members, shall commit to attending a joint legislative session of the legislative bodies of the Associated Students of Arizona State University so long as the main motions of the session shall only be binding on the Graduate Assembly and the Graduate and Professional Students Association if they are approved as they would otherwise be as prescribed by the Constitution of the Graduate and Professional Students Association and the Graduate and Professional Students Association Bylaws;

THEREFOR BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED the Assembly President shall be charged with working with representatives from all of the aforementioned organizations to coordinate such a session and reporting back the results of such efforts;

THEREFOR BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED the Assembly President and Senate Presidents – or their designees – be charged with the responsibility and power to call, implement, and organize the joint session so long as the session is called pursuant to the governing documents of each participating organization and this bill;

THEREFOR BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED this RESOLUTION shall only be effective if and only if functionally equivalent legislation is passed by no less than three (3) of the following organizations: the Undergraduate Student Government at Tempe Campus, the Undergraduate Student Government at West Campus, the Undergraduate Student Government at Polytechnic Campus, and Undergraduate Student Government of the Downtown Campus;

THEREFOR BE IT FUTHER RESOLVED the Assembly President shall be charged with contacting the Senate Presidents of the aforementioned organizations upon final approval of this RESOLUTION to inform them of the same.
