GRADUATE ASSEMBLY
ELEVENTH LEGISLATIVE SESSION

AUGUST 23RD, 2013

ASSEMBLY BILL #09

INTRODUCED BY:

JAMES ALLING, PRESIDENT OF THE GRADUATE ASSEMBLY
MEMBER FOR THE IRA A. FULTON SCHOOLS OF ENGINEERING

A Resolution to Hold Town Halls for the Consideration of Raising the Student Fee on Graduate and Professional Students

GRADUATE AND PROFESSIONAL STUDENTS ASSOCIATION,

WHEREAS the Graduate and Professional Students Association (GPSA) President has indicated that there may be an interest in raising the Student Fee under certain circumstances;

WHEREAS the Student Programming Fee is a requirement of attendance of most graduate and professional students, with many exceptions, at a rate of $25 dollars per semester;

THEREFOR BE IT RESOLVED the GPSA shall hold town halls and public outreach to all graduate and professional students at ASU in consideration of raising the Student Programming Fee;

THEREFOR BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED the GPSA shall stand neutral on any increase in the cost of attendance for undergraduate students that would not otherwise affect the cost of attendance of graduate and professional students, and shall defer in judgment to the various bodies and officers of the Undergraduate Student Government on such matters.
