ASU Tax Support for Students
Spring 2020

Please note: GPSA is not a tax advisor nor a certified tax professional. Please use the resources below as a guide, but remember that everyone’s situation is different. We encourage you to work with a tax advisor or certified tax professional regarding any questions specific to your situation.

Tax Events at ASU

Volunteer Income Tax Assistance at the West Campus: every other Thursday (5-8pm) and Saturday (9a-2p) until April 11, 2020 in CLCC 210

Volunteer Income Tax Assistance for International Students: Tempe campus
- Indian International Students
  - Monday, March 16 from 6-8pm (Computing Commons 212)
  - Friday, March 20 from 2-4pm (Discovery Hall 250)
  - Tuesday, March 24 form 6-8pm (Computing Commons 212)
- All other international students
  - Tuesday, March 17 from 6-8pm (Computing Commons 212)
  - Monday, March 23 from 6-8pm (Computing Commons 212)

Tacos and Taxes: Tuesday, February 18 from 5-6pm (San Tan Ford Room in Sun Devil Stadium)

Tax Resources through ASU

International Students will receive communications from the ISSC regarding taxes, including:
- Brining in Sprintax to do 2-3 sessions with international students
- Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) sessions for international students (see the link above for session dates)

For other questions related to tax help, students can check the ASU tax information page for frequently asked questions and contact information from specialists in taxes.

ASU has partnered with Valley of the Sun United Way to offer free tax filing software

Tax Resources Outside of ASU

How to Prepare Your Grad Student Tax Return blog: provides advice for those with RAs, TAs, GSAs, and scholarships.