

Graduate and Professional Student COVID-19 Resources***

ASU Novel Coronavirus \(COVID-19\) Information

NEW Graduate Student Crisis Fund

The Graduate Student Crisis Fund was established to assist students who encounter critical financial situations during the academic year. These funds can be used for students who need assistance with basic needs as one-time financial assistance. Basic needs could include the inability to pay for rent, utilities, food, medicine, or other expenses due to the uncertainty and strain of COVID-19. These funds are provided in part by the Graduate and Professional Student Association (GPSA) and by the Sun Devil Family Association as a one-time fund. Applications submitted here will be reviewed by ASU staff members in the Dean of Students' office and the Student Advocacy and Assistance office. This information will not be shared with other students. The form can be found here.

Emergency Short Term Loan

The ASU Financial Aid and Scholarship Services provide short term loans for students in emergency financial situations. Read more here.

Food Assistance

The ASU Pitchfork Pantry is closed for the remainder of the semester. Please directly message @ASUPitchforkPantry on Facebook if you need a one-time care package of food items. Other community resources for food include:

- Food Banks - Organized by distance from Tempe, West, Polytechnic, and Downtown campuses.
- Dean of Students Office - If you are in need of food assistance, you can also reach out to your Dean of Students.
- Aunt Bertha - A third party website that locates social assistance by zip code.

Housing Assistance

To minimize the spread of COVID-19 on campus, all students in residence who have other reasonable accommodations are asked to move off campus by April 15th. ASU is offering a $1,500 nonrefundable credit for eligible students. Read more here. For off-campus housing assistance, Community Action Agencies may offer emergency eviction and utility assistance. Read more here and here.

International Students

In these times of uncertainty, GPSA supports resources to inform international students as to their questions regarding traveling and their current and future living situation in the United States. The Coalition of International Students (CIS) is currently administering a survey to understand how international students are coping with the COVID-19 pandemic. If you are an international student, please consider taking this survey and please pass it along to any of your international student constituents.
