PURPOSE

1.1 Avenue for Relief

The Supreme Court of the Graduate and Professional Student Association (GPSA) of Arizona State University was established under Title IV of the GPSA Constitution, in order to provide the graduate students of Arizona State University with a judicial body which ensures a fair, equitable, and impartial means of adjudicating disputes arising under the Constitution and the Bylaws of GPSA.

1.2 Establishment of Internal Procedures

The purpose of these rules and procedures is to set forth a framework which shall govern the Supreme Court and give notice to concerned parties in resolving disputes prior to contacting the Supreme Court. These Rules and Procedures provide a comprehensive guide to the operations of the Supreme Court and the methods of resolving a dispute.

THE SUPREME COURT

2.1 Session

1. The Supreme Court shall hold an annual Session commencing on the first day of fall classes and shall end on the last day of spring classes.
2. The Supreme Court Justices terms begin immediately following their appointment and confirmation and shall continue for one year, unless re-appointed the following year.

2.2 Quorum

1. The Supreme Court may not sit to adjudicate disputes without all five (5) Supreme Court Justices.
2. Should a Justice recuse him or herself, quorum will be met by the remaining Justices.

2.3 Clerk of the Court

1. The Clerk of the Court shall be located at the business offices of GPSA.
2. The Clerk receives Supreme Court documents and has the authority to reject any submitted filing that does not comply with these Rules and Procedures.
3. Any document filed with the Clerk is made part of the Supreme Courts records and may not be withdrawn from the official Supreme Court files.
4. The Clerk shall make public all decisions of the Supreme Court.

2.4 Judicial Canons

1. A Justice will remain neutral in all matters presented to the Court
2. A Justice will abstain from making public comments about ongoing proceedings prior to and during that proceeding; and
3. A Justice may recuse him or herself at will if his or her ability to be impartial is at risk.

2.5 Participation

A Justice has a duty to attend and actively participate in all meetings and deliberations of the Supreme Court.

2.6 Conflicts

A Justice must resign his or her office when he or she becomes a candidate for any elected position in GPSA or appointed director.

2.7 Chief Justice

1. The Chief Justice shall be selected at the beginning of each session by a majority of the Justices.
2. It shall be the duty of the Chief Justice to:
  - 2.1. Preside over all meetings of the Supreme Court;
  - 2.2. Insure that all decisions and opinions of the Supreme Court are written and filed with the Clerk of the Court; and
  - 2.3. Communicate and perform additional duties with the GPSA and Clerk as necessary.

CASES & CONTROVERSIES

3.1 Jurisdiction

The Supreme Court shall have jurisdiction over all disputes arising under the GPSA Constitution or any Bylaws established pursuant to the Constitution. In addition, the Supreme Court shall have any other jurisdiction the GPSA Assembly may provide in the Bylaws.

3.2 Appeals from the Elections Department

1. All appeals from the Elections Department must be filed within five (5) business days from the original publication or announcement of the decision.
2. The Petitioner should attach a copy of the Elections Departments decision and the complaint that was originally filed.
3. The functions of Appeals from the Elections Department is to allow the Petitioner to challenge the Elections Departments interpretation of the Election Code as applied, or the Election Codes constitutionality.

3.3 Petition

1. All Petitions shall be filed with the Clerk.
2. Petitions to the Supreme Court shall be signed and dated.
3. The Petition shall comply with the Rules and Procedures Complaint Process.
4. Upon receipt of the Petition by the Clerk, the Clerk shall have two (2) days to provide reasonable notice to the Chief Justice and Defendant listed on the Petition.

3.4 Answer

1. Each Defendant may file an Answer to the Petition. Failure to provide an Answer in a timely manner will result in a default judgment in favor of the Petitioner.
2. The time to file an Answer ends (30) days after the receipt by the Defendant of a certified copy of the Petition.
3. All answers shall be filed with the Clerk.
4. Answers shall be signed and dated.
5. The Answer shall comply with the Rules and Procedures Answer Process.
6. Upon receipt of the Answer by the Clerk, the Clerk shall have two (2) days to notify the Chief Justice and Petitioner.

3.5 Initial Supreme Court Action

Within five (5) business days from the Supreme Courts notification of an Answer, the Supreme Court, by majority vote, shall act by:

1. A Decision of Dismissal of the Petition for reasons including, but not limited to:
  - (a) Lack of Standing;
  - (b) Failure to State a Claim upon which relief may be granted
  - (c) Not ripe for adjudication; or
  - (d) The issues involved cannot be fairly addressed by the Supreme Court.
2. Issuing a Decision without an oral hearing.
3. The scheduling of Oral Proceedings, which will take place no more than twenty-one (21) business days from the initial Petition filing date.
4. If no Answer is received within five (5) business days, the Supreme Court shall issue judgment in Petitioners favor.

3.6 Oral Proceedings

1. The purpose of an oral proceeding is to allow the parties to present evidence and arguments for the Supreme Courts consideration during deliberations.
2. All oral proceedings are hearings open to the public.
3. The time and place of an oral proceeding shall be made public at least three (3) business days in advance of the hearing.
4. Only the Justices, Petitioner, and Defendant, and their student representatives shall be allowed to speak at an oral proceeding.
5. The parties involved in oral proceedings, if represented, may only be represented by Arizona State University students.
6. The format for oral proceedings shall be as follows:
  - (a) The petitioner and defendant will each be given fifteen (15) minutes, irrespective of multiple same-side parties, to present his or her arguments and answer questions of the Supreme Court.
  - (b) There may be a short recess in order to allow the parties to prepare for their rebuttal and for the Supreme Court to prepare further questions;
  - (c) The Petitioner and defendant will each be given ten (10) minutes, irrespective of multiple same-side parties, to respond to the other parties arguments and answer questions of the Supreme Court.
7. The Supreme Court may reserve the right to extend the times allotted during oral proceedings.

3.7 Deliberations

1. The Supreme Court shall begin deliberations upon completion of an oral proceeding.
2. All deliberations are closed to the public.
3. During deliberations, the Supreme Court shall consider all evidence presented in the course of action, as well as appropriate precedent.
4. At the end of Deliberations, the Supreme Court shall take an official vote. A majority vote shall determine the decision.

3.8 Decisions and Remedies

1. In a decision, the Supreme Court may impose any remedy it has power to provide in which it deems appropriate to the case. All decisions and remedies shall be final and binding on GPSA, its subdivisions and representatives, and its members at large.
2. All decisions shall be signed and dated by all participating Justices.
3. There must be at least (1) holding from the Supreme Court. Dissenting and/or concurring opinions may also be filed.
4. Each Justice, unless disqualified from a proceeding, must sign his name to the holding he or she agrees with.
5. All Decisions presented by the Supreme Court shall be filed with the Clerk and posted within a reasonable time in a public place.
6. The decision format shall include:
